Class History

Commencement marks the beginning of a new period of our lives. Though the word suggests a forward look, we find ourselves involuntarily drawn to take a backward glance. We are aware of a strangely sentimental feeling toward our alma mater, and those plans for the future are intermingled with reminiscences of the past.

Remember our first day when we were sophomores in September of 1955. As we scurried from the study hall to our various classes, the upper classmen looked dubiously yet rather indulgently at us. Our first class meeting was held in Mr. Bergstadt's biology room. How we all squeezed into that small room remains a mystery to this day! Miss Broman and Mr. Bergstadt were our advisors. Our class officers were Nancy Nygard, Bill Breemeersch, Jim Rosenberger and Gerry Bakken. In October, Nancy Weselik represented the class of '58 at the Halloween Carnival. In February, Jean Sowa and Alice Erickson were our candidates for FFA queen. The class party came in May, and not long after that summer vacation began.

After a lovely three months of rest and fun for both students and faculty, we returned to school in our junior year feeling not so young but still not quite so important as the seniors. Under the supervision of Miss Otava and Mr. Molstad we elected class officers -- Jim Verville, Dick Wedlund, Louann Frolen and Jean Sowa. In October, Jean Sowa became our candidate for Halloween queen. Soon after that we started working on the class play, "No More Homework." Jim Verville and Louann Frolen had the leads, and Mr. Hill did his usual superb job of directing. Just before Christmas we chose our class rings. Of course, we were sure that ours were the most beautiful rings in the history of P.H.S. Once Christmas vacation was past, we began to plan the Prom. Committees were appointed and work started immediately. Prom was held on May 5 in the Hotel Duluth. Jean Sowa and Bill Bort were chosen best mixers. During our junior year the crown of royalty was presented to two of our class members. In February, Bertha Fransk was chosen Winter Frolic queen; in July, Rosella Fossum became Miss Proctor.

When we returned after summer vacation in '57, we perhaps felt just a little smug. We were seniors and in our last year of school. Our first class meeting was held in the music room where Jim Verville handed over the presidency to Denny Molstad. Other officers elected were Dave Stark, Nancy Nygard and Jane Perrill. Jim Verville and Louann Frolen were selected to serve as editors of the yearbook. While the rest of the world struggled with its many problems and scanned the heavens for Sputnik, we faced the biggest financial problem of our school days. First hour English class will remember Mrs. Hippaka frequently saying, "Any bright ideas for raising money?" They will remember how quiet the room became, for bright ideas did not seem to originate in first hour English. In spite of the fact that we were not experts in the art of making money, we tried! Ice cream sales were begun in the cafeteria, and a magazine sales drive was started. We realized that this was not a year for relaxing. At the Halloween Carnival this October our candidate, Diane Westland, was crowned queen. The whole class was happy and proud to have such a queen as Diane. The boys were not left out, as their turn came with the crowning of the Knight of the Gridiron. In the feudal atmosphere of knights in shining armour and fair damsels in distress, Terry McGovern was crowned Knight of the Gridiron. Having our graduation pictures taken made us realize that high school days were drawing to a close. Sometimes we would get in a serious mood when talking about the fun and the work of the past three years. Talk of the future brought a tone of uncertainty into our voices, but we all thought of it more often than ever before.

May, 1958 -- at last the warm clear days, so slow to come.

Tomorrow, why tomorrow -- is graduation day.

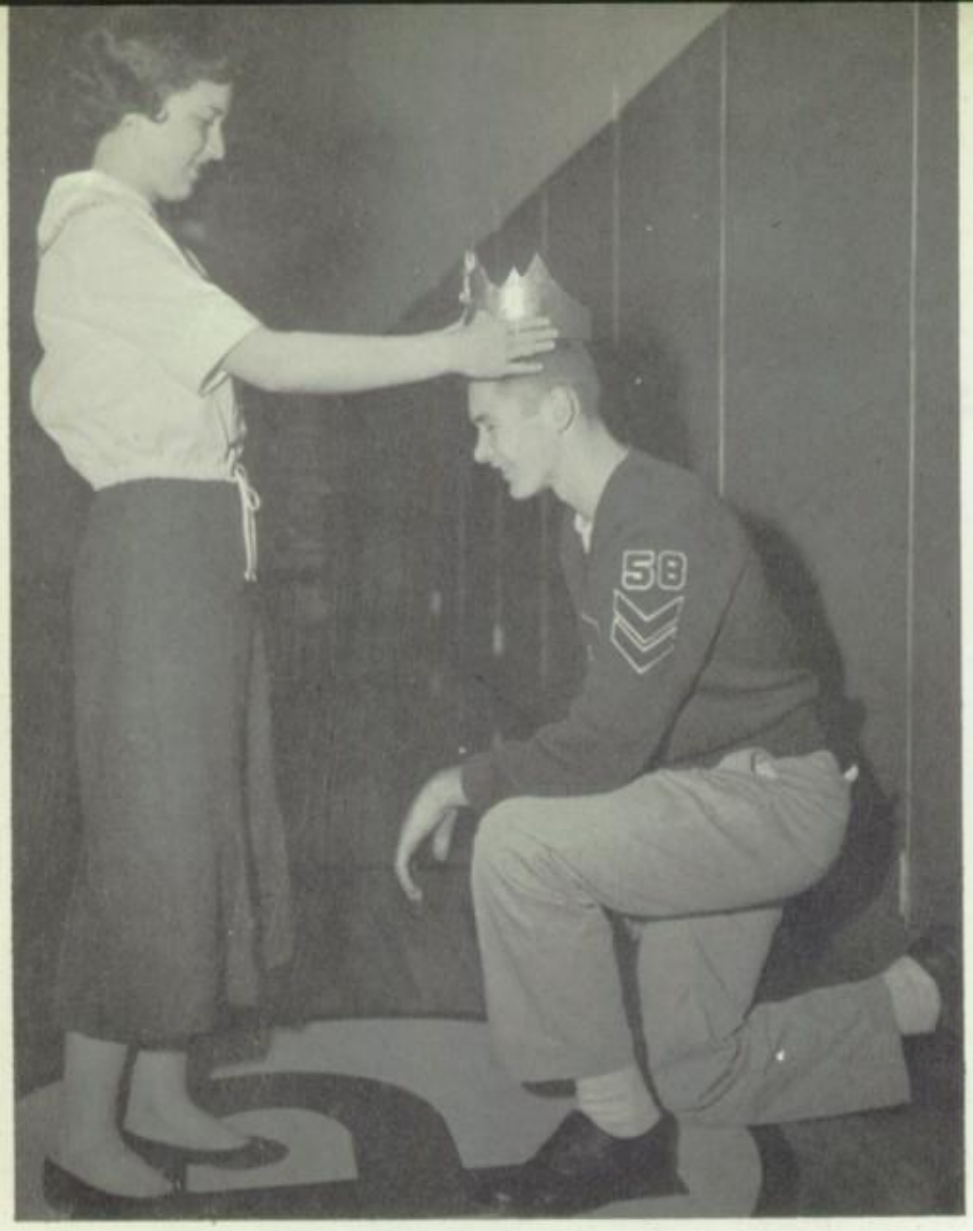
Homecoming

Our queen candidates for 1957-58 Homecoming were Rosella Fossum, Diane Westlund, Jean Sowa, Nancy Weselik and Tootie Larson. The student body selected Jean Sowa as their queen. Debbie La Flamme and Jerry McGovern were the train and crown bearers.

Queen Jean



Knight of the Gridiron

The crowning of the Knight of the Gridiron is the annual ceremony during which the outstanding football player is selected for his ability, his good sportsmanship, his concern for the team as a whole, and his all around popularity. This year it was part of a three day celebration held October 13, 14, and 15 in honor of our undefeated football team. It included a Green and White Day, a snake dance, and a bonfire. All senior football players were eligible for the honor. The actual crowning took place during the pep meeting held the day of the game against Carlton. In keeping with the theme of knights and medieval times, the players were brought to a round table on which lay a sword. They were told that whoever lifted the sword was knight. Following many unsuccessful attempts by other players, Terry McGovern raised the sword. At last our knight was discovered! After Terry vowed to help uphold Proctor's high athletic standards, Rosella Fossum crowned him "Knight of the Gridiron, 1957."

Romance, revelry and rhythm marked the most anticipated social event of the year, the junior-senior prom. The time was May 4th; the place was the Morrish room of the Hotel Duluth. One thousand hand-made roses were used to provide decorations for the theme of "Moonlight and Roses." The color and gaiety of the occasion was heightened by formals and fragrant corsages. Girls and their escorts gathered at the banquet tables for tasty food and entertainment. An evening of dancing completed the enjoyment.

Class Poem

School is almost over;
Graduation day is nigh;
Soon we shall bid old PHS goodbye.

Many things we've learned here;
Many friends we've made;
Many hours we've labored and a few of them we've played.

We started out as sophomores
In our high school dear,
Our emotions were divided between happiness and fear.

The next year we were juniors
And indeed were very proud;
The prom, the play, our sportsmen attracted many a crowd.

Without our realization
Our junior year was gone,
Our senior year had started but it didn't last for long.

Now that year is over;
Soon we'll graduate,
But each will long remember -- the class of fifty-eight.

Teen Age Club

Treasurer, Jon Parmeter; Vice-President, Rosella Fossum; President, Dale Hoffman; Secretary, Carol Malley.

The Teen Age Club, whose officers are pictured above, has offered Friday night recreation for the teen-agers of Proctor and the surrounding area. The Club holds weekly dances at the village hall. Music is usually provided by a local orchestra, but occasionally records are used. A special thanks is due the Teen Age Club for their work in preparing these dances and for their cash contributions to the Senior Class.

Thank You!

The Yearbook staff and the senior class take this opportunity to express their appreciation for the financial assistance received from contributors. We realize that these people are called upon for contributions to a variety of school functions. Since the yearbook is a self-supporting project for which we must raise about two thousand dollars, the staff is grateful for your support.

Dear Karen -

I have had some rare experiences since coming to Dalton & now I feel kinda sad about moving away. I can't believe I've only been here for 3 yrs. It seems like I've lived here all my life. Gosh, all you kids are such a ball, I've really made alot of friends that I'll miss alot. It makes me so mad the way everyone talks about the kids up here! Can't even shake town a little without catching h---!! But now that we're out of school and we can do whatever we want to. In just 10 days I'll be an old married gal. Come & see me sometime.

I guess we had some pretty wild times together - ah? But I had a ball anyhow.

Not much more to say 'cept Latsa Luck to a really swell gal & Be Good - no mischief!?

Dear Karen,

Well I guess this is really it. It's hard to believe but it really is true. I'll never forget some of the good times we've had together. When we were little and were out by the Air Base and the gas station attendant stopped for gas and he said "Come again girls" or something. And remember the rundown gas station in Cheviot and Mr. Katz said he'd let us have it for a penny? Remember the time we went to get that dam old dog for mother & she didn't want it? Remember a horrible smell something awful. And the time we have enjoyed his company. I have enjoyed his friendship very much. Think of all the laughs we have had in Cheviot and when Mr. Katz said he'd let us have it for a penny

...ddens and
...d to play a
...ed park. It sure
...ne had some heavy
...omething to see, but we just
...d me, stayed for about two
...ee still a couple of hours
...and in the steel suite
...her see we're all set
...keids. Well then, I must close
...ve only lots of fun ahead
...hope all of our
...keids grow up to be
...eend like a couple of kids
...much more to say except
...onderful girl the best of luck
...she does now and in the future.
